

The September 11th Education Trust

Our mission is to produce comprehensive, flexible and engaging 9/11 and civic literacy education programs, protecting the legacy and memory of the victims of the terrorist attacks, preserving and harnessing the lessons of 9/11 and its aftermath, unifying and directing our nation's youth toward informed and effective civic participation.

The National September 11th Education Program was made possible by the generous support of our Principal Program Underwriter

North Jersey Media Group Foundation Inc. is a 501(c)(3) organization committed to providing charitable funding and services in order to make a significant difference in the lives of its North Jersey neighbors. It is the charitable arm of North Jersey Media Group. North Jersey Media Group is best known for its flagship daily newspapers, The Record (Bergen County, NJ) and Herald News (Passaic County, NJ). North Jersey Media Group also publishes 45 community newspapers (including The Montclair Times and The Ridgewood News) in Bergen, Passaic, Morris, and Essex counties. For more information, visit www.njmgf.org

The September 11th Education Trust recognizes the generous and thoughtful program investment of North Jersey Media Group Foundation, a partnership that has allowed us to deliver this interdisciplinary curriculum, honoring the 9/11 victims and our collective history as it empowers students across the United States.
