

Japan Websites
(Checked for Accuracy September 23, 2003)

Most of the following websites were obtained from The National Clearinghouse for United States-Japan Studies (Indiana University: <http://www.indiana.edu/~japan>). Additional sites were also located from Japan: A Global Studies Handbook by Lucien Ellington.

<http://www.japan-guide.com> (travel, geography, temples, tea ceremony)
<http://www.nationalgeographic.com/ngm/0101/feature5/index.html> (Japan's imperial palace)
<http://www.isejingu.or.jp/english/index.htm> (The Temple of Ise)
<http://history.hanover.edu/texts/1889con.html> (Meiji Constitution)
<http://history.hanover.edu/texts/1947con.html> (Japan's 1947 Constitution)
<http://www.japan-guide.com/e/e2062.html> (Japan's holidays)
<http://www.indiana.edu/~easc/holidays/japan/jmap.htm> (Holidays and Celebrations that include teaching resources)
<http://www.japanupdate.com/previous/99/08/19/news3.shtml> (Obon Festival)
<http://www.isop.ucla.edu/eas/japan/today/index.htm> (Japanese history)
<http://www.wsu.edu:8080/~dee/ANCJAPAN/ANCJAPAN.HTM> (Ancient Japan)
http://afe.easia.columbia.edu/japan_history2_a.htm (Japan's history from 1800 to present)
<http://www.smith.edu/fceas/curriculum/berkwood.htm> (AP World History, Comparison European and Japanese feudalism)
<http://afe.easia.columbia.edu/japan/japanworkbook/modernhist/meiji.html> (AP World History, 1750-1914)
<http://www.smith.edu/fceas/curriculum/dunnagan.htm> AP World History, 1750-1914)
<http://www.nuclearfiles.org/edstudyguides/drop.html> (Dropping the Bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki)
<http://www.theblackmoon.com/Jfood/food1.html> (Japanese food)
http://www.jinjapan.org/access/tea/tea_c.html (The tea ceremony)
<http://www.indiana.edu/~japan/digest9.html> (Japanese high schools)
<http://www.indiana.edu/~japan/digest5.html> (Japanese education)
<http://jin.jcic.or.jp/museum/menu.html> (Japanese art)
<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/ukiyo-e/> (Japanese prints)
http://www.lacma.org/art/perm_col/japanese/japan.htm (Los Angeles County Art Museum's tour of Japanese art)
<http://jin.jcic.or.jp/nipponia/nipponia8/special.html> (Japanese gardens)
<http://www.embjapan.org> (Japanese Embassy)
<http://www.japantimes.co.jp/> (Japan Times newspaper)

