These reproducible charts are designed to help students prepare for both the multiple choice and essay portions of the European History Advanced Placement test.

There are two basic ways these charts can be used in the classroom:

1. As a review for the AP exam: Duplicate the packet for each student or group of students during early April to be completed by the beginning of May.
2. As enrichment: Duplicate individual charts for each student or group of students, and have them complete as you cover different units as suggested below.

Explorers during the Age of Discovery

Art History during the Renaissance

Philosophy during the Reformation

European Wars during the Age of Religious Wars

Authors during rise of Absolutism in France and Constitutionalism in England

Philosophers during the Enlightenment

Revolutions and Revolts during the Age of Revolution

Music History and Musical Composers during Romanticism

Economic History, Economic Systems and Economists during the Revolutions of 1848

Historical Documents during Imperialism and War

Architectural History during the Post War Era
